Conditions & Policy

Acceptance

All applications for the course must be accompanied by the completed application form and supporting materials. Admission of candidates is at the sole discretion of the faculty of capewrite.com.

The venue has a mix of single and shared twin rooms but the maximum number of participants in the writing group is limited to 12. Partners accompanying writers, and sharing a room, are welcome to attend the photo workshop.

Accepted candidates will be notified immediately and thereafter the course fee becomes payable. (See below for details of payment.)

Applicants who cannot be accommodated in a given course may request to be placed on a waiting list in the event of a cancellation or considered for the next course.

Cancellations

Only cancellations for health reasons will be accepted, up to one week before the course begins and on production of a valid medical certificate. In these instances your fee will be returned less R2500.00 administration fee.

For all cancellations after this time, the full fee R12500 (single resident) or R8000.00 (non resident) becomes non-refundable.

In the event of such cancellations, we will do our best to fill your place from our waiting list, and, if we succeed, your fee, less administration fee of R2500.00, will be refunded. In all other circumstances we reserve the right to retain the full fee. We do not provide cancellation insurance and we advise successful applicants to arrange their own insurance and health insurance.

Changes to the Programme

Capewrite.com reserves the right to make changes to the advertised programme due to unforeseen circumstances. In such an event, capewrite.com will strive to ensure that any changes do not affect the quality of the programme or the instruction.
